General Instructions for Filing the D.C. PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX RETURN

TAX CHANGES MADE BY THE TAX PARITY ACT OF 1999

Effective for tax years beginning on or after July 1, 2000, there is a remaining cost (current value) exclusion of $50,000. Therefore, the tax rate of $3.40 for each $100 value of personal property is applicable to the value in excess of $50,000. Also effective July 1, 2000, there are new depreciation guidelines for qualified technological equipment.

IMPORTANT

TO ENSURE PROPER CREDIT TO YOUR ACCOUNT,

PLEASE REMEMBER-

- Only one return will be accepted for each tax registrant. If you have more than one business location, please file a consolidated return with a separate schedule for each location.
- 2. Enter your Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) or Social Security Number (SSN) if self employed in the appropriate boxes.
- 3. Include the telephone number of an officer or owner.
- 4. Include your name, address, tax year and FEIN (or SSN) on any additional schedules or attachments.
- 5. Write "2002 Personal Property Tax" and your FEIN (or SSN) in the lower left corner of your check or money order.

Who Must File a Return

A District of Columbia personal property tax return must be filed by every individual, corporation, partnership, executor, administrator, guardian, receiver, trustee or any entity that owns or holds in trust any tangible personal property if:

- The property is located or has a taxable situs in the District of Columbia;
 and
- The property is used or is available for use in the District of Columbia in a trade or business, including property kept in storage or held for rent or lease to third parties or government agencies.

NOTE: You are in a trade or business if you are engaged in carrying on or concluding the affairs of a trade, business, profession, vocation, rental of property, or any other activity whether or not operated for profit or a livelihood. Construction companies doing business in the District of Columbia at any time from July 2, 2000 to July 1, 2001 must apportion the remaining cost (current value) of tangible personal property as of July 1, 2001, in accordance with the number of days during the period that their tangible personal property was physically located in the District of Columbia.

Exemptions

- Nonprofit Organizations The tangible personal property of an IRC §501(c)(3) organization that has applied for and received an exemption certificate from the Government of the District of Columbia, Office of Tax and Revenue is exempt from the personal property tax. Note: Any personal property used for activities that generate unrelated business income subject to tax under section 511 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is not exempt. If you are an IRC §501(c)(3) organization and would like to obtain a District of Columbia exemption application (Form FR-164), please call (202) 442-6546 or visit our website at www.dccfo.com.
- Gross Receipts Tax, Distribution Tax, Toll Telecommunication Service Tax and Commercial Mobile Service Tax Tax Clarity Act of 2000 (DC Act 13-501) provides an exemption from the personal property tax on the tangible personal property of any entity subject to the gross receipts tax, distribution tax, toll telecommunication service tax or commercial mobile service tax.
- 3. Qualified High Technology Companies New E-Conomy Transformation Act of 2000 (D.C. Act 13-543) provides an exemption from the personal property tax for ten years from the date of purchase of any tangible personal property purchased after December 31, 2000 by a company certified as a Qualified High Technology Company.

A Qualified High Technology Company is any individual or entity with two or more employees headquartered or operating in the District of Columbia and deriving at least 51% of its District of Columbia gross revenue from one or more qualified technological activities. The qualified technological activities are as follows:

- A. Provides internet-related services and sales;
- B. Provides information and communication technologies that involve advanced computer software and hardware, data processing, visualization technologies or human interface technologies;
- C. Provides advanced materials and processing technologies related to the chemical, biochemical, or medical field;
- D. Provides engineering, production, biotechnology and defense technologies that involve knowledge-based control systems and architectures; or
- E. Provides electronic and photonic devices and components, such as microprocessors, logic chips, memory chips, lasers, lenses and optical fibers.

When and Where To File

The 2002 District of Columbia Personal Property Tax return must be filed on or before July 31, 2001. Mail the return to the Government of the District of Columbia, Office of Tax and Revenue, P.O. Box 7862, Washington, D.C. 20044-7862.

Payment of Personal Property Tax

The total amount of tax due must be paid in full and mailed with the return (please use the enclosed envelope). Make the check or money order payable to the D.C. Treasurer, and write "2002 Personal Property Tax" and your FEIN (or SSN) in the lower left corner of your payment.

Charge for dishonored check

A $50 charge will be imposed if your bank does not honor your check in payment of any obligation due the District of Columbia.

Extension of Time to File

To request an extension of time to file your Personal Property Tax Return, use Form FP-129A. Mail Form FP-129A on or before July 31, 2001 along with your payment of the total amount of the tax due. Mail the request and payment to the Government of the District of Columbia, Office of Tax and Revenue, P.O. Box 7862, Washington, D.C. 20044-7862.

Penalties and Interest

- A late payment penalty at the rate of 5 percent per month, (limited to a 25 percent maximum) will be assessed on the unpaid taxes. The extension applies only to the filing of the return.
- Interest at the rate of 1.083 percent per month will be assessed on any tax which remains unpaid after the due date of the return without regard to any extension of time for filing the return. Interest on a late payment is computed from the due date of the return to the date when the tax is paid.
- A substantial valuation misstatement penalty may be applied if there is an understatement of the tax liability greater than $5,000 (or greater than $10,000 for corporations) that is attributable to a valuation misstatement.
- The valuation misstatement is a substantial misstatement if the amount determined to be the correct valuation is 200% or more than the amount reported on your return. The penalty is equal to 20% of the underpayment attributable to the misstatement.
- The valuation misstatement is a gross misstatement if the amount determined to be the correct valuation is 400% or more than the amount reported on your return. The penalty is equal to 40% of the underpayment attributable to the misstatement.

Additional Information

Additional information regarding the personal property tax return may be obtained from the Customer Service Administration by calling (202)727-4TAX(4829) or visiting the center at 941 North Capitol Street, N.E., (First floor), Washington, D.C. 20002.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

Photocopies

Please send the original return. A photocopy is not acceptable.

Value of Tangible Personal Property - You must report the remaining cost (current value) of all tangible personal property as of July 1, 2001.

Depreciation - The straight-line method of depreciation is the only method allowed in calculating the remaining cost (current value). Accelerated depreciation methods and property lives, including the Accelerated Cost Recovery System, may not be used to compute the remaining cost (current value).

Tangible personal property (excluding qualified technological equipment) reported on the return must not be depreciated in excess of 75 percent of its original cost. Consequently, the remaining cost (current value) of all tangible personal property (excluding qualified technological equipment) must be at least 25 percent of the original cost.

Qualified technological equipment must be depreciated at the rate of 30 percent per year and must not be depreciated in excess of 90 percent of its original cost. Consequently, the remaining cost (current value) of qualified technological equipment must be at least 10 percent of the original cost.

For personal property tax years beginning July 1, 2000, and thereafter, the remaining cost (current value) of qualified technological equipment acquired on or before June 30, 2000, may be calculated as if depreciation at the rate of 30 percent per year was used from the acquisition date. However, there will be no credit or refund of tax paid in earlier tax years under the prior depreciation rate for qualified technological equipment.

Depreciation rates for any tangible personal property not listed in the Depreciation Guidelines may be obtained by calling (202) 727-4TAX (4829).

Use Schedule A of the Personal Property Tax Return to report all depreciable property that you owned and which is subject to the personal property tax.

Definition of Qualified Technological Equipment

Computer means a programmable electronically activated device that is capable of accepting information, applying prescribed processes to the information, and supplying the results with or without human intervention, and which consists of a central unit containing extensive storage, logic, arithmetic and control capabilities.

Related peripheral equipment means any auxiliary machine (whether on-line or off-line) that is designed to be placed under the control of a computer and operated in conjunction with such computer.

Qualified technological equipment means any computer or related peripheral equipment other than the types mentioned below:

- A. Equipment that is an integral part of other property that is not a computer;
- B. Typewriters, calculators, adding and accounting machines, copiers, duplicating equipment and similar devices;
- C. Equipment of a kind used primarily for the amusement or entertainment of the user;
- D. Mainframe computers that are capable of simultaneously supporting multiple transactions and multiple users, and having an original cost in excess of $500,000, including any additional memory units, tape drives, disk drives, power supplies, cooling units and communication controllers that are peripheral equipment related to such computers; or
- E. Computers used in operating industrial processing equipment, equipment used in a computer assisted manufacturing system, equipment used in a computer assisted design or engineering system integral to an industrial process, or subunit or electronic assembly comprising a component in a computer integrated industry processing system.

Leased Property - Any tangible personal property owned by the lessor must be reported by the lessor in Schedule A. Any tangible personal property under a "Lease-Purchase" Agreement or a "Security Purchase" Agreement, under which the lessee is obligated to become the owner, must be reported by the lessee in Schedule A.

Schedules - Separate schedules may be attached if necessary. These schedules must include your name, address, tax year and your FEIN (or SSN).

All items of tangible personal property owned by the business and located or having a taxable situs in the District of Columbia, whether or not currently in use, must be reported at their remaining cost (current value) as of July 1, 2001.

INSTRUCTIONS

Form FP-129A

(Extension of Time to File D.C. Personal Property Tax Return or Report)

EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE – A 3-month extension of time to file will be granted if you properly complete and timely file Form FP-129A together with full payment of the tax due. If you are granted an extension of time to file you must attach a copy of your completed and filed Form FP-129A when you actually file your personal property tax return or report.

A taxpayer must use Form FP-129A to request a 3-month extension of time to file Forms FP-31, FP-32, FP-33 and FP-34. A separate form FP-129A must be submitted for each return or report for which an extension of time to file is requested. No extension of time to file will be granted beyond the first 3-month extension.

WHEN TO FILE – The request for an extension of time to file must be submitted on or before the due date of the return or report.

WHERE TO FILE – The completed Form FP-129A together with the payment of any tax due should be mailed to the Government of the District of Columbia, Office of Tax and Revenue, P.O. Box 7862, Washington, D.C. 20044-7862. Be sure to sign and date the form. Make the check or money order payable to the D.C. Treasurer.

INTEREST AND PENALTY – If any tax is not paid on or before the due date of the return or report, without regard to any extension of time to file a return, interest at the rate of 1.083 percent per month will be assessed on any tax which remains unpaid after the due date of the return. Interest on a late payment is computed from the due date of the return to the last day of the month in which the payment of tax is made.

A penalty at the rate of 5 percent per month, or portion of a month (limited to a 25 percent maximum), will be assessed on the unpaid taxes.

SIGNATURE – The request for an extension must be signed by the taxpayer or the taxpayer's authorized agent.
